

Measurer Seminars

The Measurer Seminar is aimed at educating Australian Sailing members in fundamental measurement, certification and current measurement trends. Measurers play an important role within sailing ensuring equipment compliance, being responsible for the measurement of boats and as a source of technical knowledge.

AUSTRALIAN SAILING QLD OFFICE

SAILS & SPARS – 29th July 2023

A half-day course where participants will become accredited as a Measurer – Sails and Spars; a person qualified to carry out fundamental measurement and certification on spars and sails only. They are qualified to act as an equipment inspector at any event at Club, State or National level.

REGISTER

CLASS – 29th – 30th July 2023

A 2 day seminar where participants will become accredited as a Measurer – Official Class Measurer; a person qualified to carry out measurement and certification control and perform fundamental measurement and certification. They are qualified to act as an event measurer or equipment inspector at any event at Club, State or National level.

REGISTER

Dates and Venues subject to change

If these dates don't suit you please register your interest here: <https://www.sailing.org.au/events/57222/>