CRUISE REPORT

The cruise started at Dux the day after the successful Poker Run, and 22 vessels registered for the cruise.

Unfortunately, the cruise leader (Nick) had generator problems and had to pull out, Bob Kershaw offered to take over in the absence of any other PBC Members and then Phi Barlow showed up and took over. Many thanks to Phil.

Due to strong winds in the Bay the planned visit to Dunwich was abandoned in favour of a calmer anchorage at Karragarra.

Moving to RQYS Canaipa Point the following day for a BBQ.

Strong wind and intermittent rain continued, and the cruise relocated to Tiger Mullet channel where they met ashore for drinks and nibbles.

Heading to Dux on Thursday where the weather was much calmer, the crew met ashore for lunch BYO Drinks and BBQ.

Six lucky people won club cash in the BMS Random Draw for Club Cash and six more won bottles of wine in the Precision Marine Wine Draw.
