

Southport Yacht Club

RULES FOR DUX POLICY

as at February 2026

Welcome to the Southport Yacht Club Inc. (SYC) Dux facility. We wish you an enjoyable visit, and request that you make yourself aware of the following conditions which apply to access and use of Dux.

1. Dux is for the use of Life, Gold, Senior, Intermediate members and their guests.* Cadets over 16yrs to 18yrs of age may use Dux, however they are not entitled to take guests (all other Cadets must be accompanied by an adult member). Members of Royal Queensland Yacht Squadron, Royal Motor Yacht Club Broken Bay, and Cruising Yacht Club Of Australia, and their guests* are also welcome to use Dux.
 - * Limits of the number of guests may be applied at certain peak times of the year in the interest of maintaining fair and equal access for all Members.
 - * A Member wishing to invite 10 or more guests (including children) must apply to the Main Beach Administration for approval. Maximum number of visitors in any one group, on any one occasion, is 15 (this includes all Members and family members)
2. All family and guests are to be under the supervision and in the company of the Member at all times.
3. SYC Members and Reciprocal Club Members are required to show their current membership card/s to the caretaker on arrival, and sign into the registration book at the entry to Dux.
4. The only Reciprocal Club members permitted to use Dux are those members of Royal Queensland Yacht Squadron, Royal Motor Yacht Club – Broken Bay and Cruising Yacht Club of Australia.
5. Certain areas of Dux have been set aside for camping, games, cooking of food, etc. Please respect these areas and only undertake each activity in the designated area.
6. From time to time the caretaker may, without notice, close off any area for rejuvenation or repair, and request an alternative site be used.
7. Due to the delicate nature of the ground cover in sandy areas, we request you do not cover grassed areas with ground sheets, tarpaulins, etc. without seeking approval from the caretaker.
8. No dogs, or other pets / animals are permitted onshore at Dux as per the Council regulations at South Stradbroke Island where Dux is located.
9. When camping at Dux please keep noise to a minimum after 8.30pm to ensure the comfort of all our Members and their guests.
10. Permission for a group to use Dux does not constitute a booking, nor does it give any Member or their guests exclusive use of any of the facilities.
11. The Caretakers are commissioned by the General Manager of the Club on behalf of the Board, to ensure compliance with the rules of Dux and have the right to remind Members and guests of their obligation to abide by these rules.
